ARTS BOARD

REPORT

APRIL FIRST TO DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, 1949

*See page 15
The Act.*

The Honourable Woodrow S. Lloyd,
Minister of Education,
Legislative Buildings,
Regina, Saskatchewan.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with the requirements of the Act of the Provincial Legislature establishing the Saskatchewan Arts Board (March, 1949), I submit herewith a report on the activities of the Board for the period April 1st to December 31st, 1949, (inclusive).

I am, Sir,

Yours obediently,

(Signed) S. BASTERFIELD,
Chairman, Saskatchewan Arts Board.

Regina, March 3, 1950.

SASKATCHEWAN ARTS BOARD

THIS report covers the period since the new Act of April 1, 1949, which now governs the activities of the Saskatchewan Arts Board. The establishment of the Board by act of the Legislative Assembly followed upon the thirteen month period of exploratory activity. The successful conclusion of this work and the solid establishment of the Board was a source of satisfaction and inspiration to the members.

Under the new Act, the approved policy includes responsibility for providing more opportunities for Saskatchewan people in the arts, namely music, the visual arts, handicraft, literature, drama and other arts; training and information services, and maintaining and promoting high standards in these fields. The Board is now empowered to hold its own funds in trust including the government grant, to add to this fund and to administer its own projects and finances.

During the past year the Board has been able to extend its activities and has carefully estimated how and in what degree it can best achieve its purposes in consultation with other organizations and individuals having similar aims.

MUSIC

CONCERTS

The concert tour of Miss Thelma Johannes sponsored by the Board, has continued through the year. Since the last report, nineteen more concerts have been given by this young Saskatchewan pianist in the smaller centres of the province bringing the total concerts in this series to thirty-four to date. This number includes separate performances for school children in a number of communities. It is the Board's intention to sponsor each winter season further scholarship students in this way as they return from their studies overseas.

The Board has set up a small committee with representatives of the Regina Music Teachers' Association, to help the Board in selecting and making arrangements for a trio of music students to visit towns and hamlets near Regina to give concert performances during the spring months.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Board pays tribute to the unflagging efforts of Mrs. Hugh McKenzie, of Biggar, who by letter and by personal contacts over wide areas of the province has made the arrangements for the Johannes Concerts. The treasurer for this project, Mr. Lyell Gustin, has also carried an exacting assignment in attending to the financial details for the concert series. Without their generous assistance this music project could not have succeeded.

VISUAL ARTS

CIRCULATING EXHIBITIONS

Community requests for loan exhibitions of fine reproductions by European, American and Canadian artists have increased and the Board has recently purchased twelve new Canadian silk screen prints to meet this demand. The places utilizing pictures in this period have been: Broadview, Carlyle, Churchbridge, Dysart, Ethelton, Gull Lake, Hudson Bay, Markinch, Melfort, Saskatoon, Ogema, Swift Current, Tuffnell, Vibank, and Wolseley.

SPECIAL EXHIBITIONS

Exhibitions of a special nature have been arranged for the Qu'Appelle Valley Centre, Fort Qu'Appelle; for the Annual Meeting of the United Farm Women, Saskatchewan Branch; and at Regina College in collaboration with the College librarian during the annual Saskatchewan Library Association meeting last June.

The Saskatchewan Arts Board contributed a sum of $100 to the Western Canada Art Circuit (four provinces), to bring from New York an exhibition of sculpture by the distinguished American artist, Cleo Hartwig. This exhibition will be available for several months in Saskatchewan through the Board.

CHILDREN'S ART

An exhibition of Saskatchewan Children's art was sent on invitation from the National Gallery of Canada to the Worcester Art Museum, U.S.A. The Saskatchewan Arts Board has responded to a further invitation to exhibit the art of Saskatchewan children to an international show of child art at the Art Museum of Denver, Colorado.

The Secretary has undertaken to examine for the School Broadcasts Branch, the hundreds of children's pictures sent in after the broadcast art lessons. Comments are given on all the work that Saskatchewan teachers have submitted from their classes.

TEACHER INSTITUTES

The Secretary was invited to teacher institutes at Nipawin, Gull Lake, Lanigan, Tompkins, and Melfort, to give talks on art education in schools and for communities.

PROVINCIAL ART SCHOOL

The Board has been investigating with the aid of a committee of Saskatchewan Artists, the need for a provincial art school in this province. This committee has prepared a detailed statement of requirements and the final report will be ready in the spring.

PURCHASE OF PICTURES

An all-Saskatchewan exhibition is being sponsored by the Board and arrangements are in hand for this to be held in Regina in May. Subsequently this exhibition will alternate annually between Regina and Saskatoon. From this exhibition purchases will be made by the Board in order to build up a publicly-owned gallery of original work for circulation in the province. The purpose of this project is to encourage Saskatchewan artists and to make their work better known and appreciated in Saskatchewan.

CIRCULATION OF "CANADIAN ART"

Bulk orders have been placed for the magazine Canadian Art and wide distribution continues to be made to publicize the development of painting, designing, industrial design, the graphic arts, sculpture and architecture in Canada.

HANDICRAFT

Invested with definite responsibility by the Handicraft Conference of last March, which was representative of a majority of handicraft organizations throughout the province, the Board has endeavoured to find the best ways of carrying out the recommendations made then.

During June, a small exhibition of Saskatchewan handicraft was displayed at the Hotel Saskatchewan at the time of the annual meeting of the Co-op Women's Guild, with emphasis on the traditional crafts of Saskatchewan ethnic groups.

It has been found necessary to discover how much genuine handicraft is being carried on, as distinct from busy-work, how much assistance people need in the way of encouragement and first class teaching, in order to maintain good standards and to help develop this valuable form of human activity in suitable ways. The Board is moving slowly in order to avoid error and a questionnaire is now in circulation throughout the province in order to compile a useful assessment of needs.

LITERATURE

BOOK LISTS

The Saskatchewan Library Association has compiled a number of lists of recommended reading. The Board has arranged the publication of these lists in the bulletin, Saskatchewan Community, and through the magazine Saskatchewan Recreation.

RADIO

In addition, the Saskatchewan Library Association is co-operating with the Board in the production of radio scripts on teen-age reading for distribution to provincial radio stations. Librarians in Saskatoon and in Regina are carrying out this project.

DRAMA

To assist the Saskatchewan Drama League in its reorganization programme, a grant was made to enable the League to employ clerical assistance.

SCHOLARSHIPS

With a Committee of the Saskatchewan Drama League, four scholarships were awarded to Saskatchewan young people to enable them to attend the Banff School of Fine Arts drama course. Three of these were accepted. Mr. Donald Cameron, Director of Extension, University of Alberta, made the scholarships available to this province.

PUBLICATIONS

SASKATCHEWAN COMMUNITY

Since last April, the Board has joined with the Adult Education Division in publishing a bulletin called Saskatchewan Community. Ten issues of the bulletin have been published. The subjects of the bulletin have included: The Saskatchewan Library Conference and Reading, Art Exhibitions, the Use of Gramophone Records, a Speakers Bureau, Christmas Carols of the Saskatchewan Ethnic Groups, a Digest of Briefs presented to the Massey Commission, and three Radio Listening Guides. These bulletins are for the purpose of circulating useful information and ideas about educational and cultural affairs throughout the province. Two thousand are sent out to individuals, Superintendents, Helping Teachers and Agricultural Representatives, and over one thousand by bulk distribution to responsible groups of citizens such as Home and School members, Homemakers clubs; through the Co-operative Union and the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, and to the students of the School of Agriculture. Demand for the bulletin has grown from 2,000 to 3,200 in the past five months.

BRIEF TO THE ROYAL CULTURAL COMMISSION

The Saskatchewan Arts Board presented a brief to the Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences last November in which it made various recommendations including the following:

NATIONAL ARTS BOARD

—That a National Arts Board, similar to the Arts Council of Great Britain, be set up by the Dominion government with representatives from the National cultural societies, government agencies and laymen chosen for their interest in the arts. This Board would serve as an integrating force in Canadian culture and would link Canada with other countries by working with UNESCO and the British Arts Council.

SCHOLARSHIPS

—That the Dominion government officially recognize the well-equipped and staffed schools for the cultural arts already in existence; and by a system of travel grants and scholarships make it possible for students who come from areas where no such school exists, to attend for training. The Board also recommended the increase of scholarships generally, for students of art, music, drama and literature, and for leaders in these fields of activity.

SASKATCHEWAN CBC STATION FOR ORIGINATING BROADCASTS

—That the CBC establish in Saskatchewan a station on the Trans-Canada network for the originating of broadcasts so that the musicians, actors and writers of this province have some incentive to stay and work in their home province rather than in other parts of Canada.

NATIONAL CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS

—That the National Gallery of Canada, the National Film Board, the National Museum, the Archives, and the National Library, be given sufficient money to enable these organizations to extend their services; and through the National Gallery of Canada, art specialists be made available for periods of instruction and in such institutions as normal schools and at short courses throughout Canada.

The attached financial statement covers the expenditure within the period of this report.
